The Franco-Prussian War. H JAG III It is nearly a month—twenty-three days -since France declared war against Pressie, all Europe and the world were suddenly surprised by the event. Everybody expected a great battle to be fought by the end of the first or second week, but everybody has been disappointed. There have been a number of skirmishes. Saarbrucken has been taken and Weissenburg captured: This is all that has been done along the Franco-Prussian frontier. In the Baltic two Prussian gunboats are reported to have been captured by the French. No attack as was expected has been made by the French on any part of the Coast of Prassis bordering on the German Ocean. The real seat of war to-day as at the begin . ning lies between Switzerland and Luxemberg. There is where the territories of the belligerents join each other There is the weak point of each country, The French soldiers can walk across the boundary into Germany, and the Prussian into France. Behind the boundary lies the wealthy cities of France and Prussia and the positions that if once in possession of a hostile army, the country whether France or Prussia is conqured. All the fighting that has been done along the frontier has been to get positions that would enable the lucky holders to advance into the enemy's country. We view the affair at Saarbrucken in no other light, than a move by the French to gain a position to advance into Prus. sia. The Saarbrucken affair has been represented as unimportant; but that can scarcely be the case, as it is the first post on a line of railroad crossing the boundary, and consequently had to be captured to control the road. If the French think of moving a portion of their force by that line, they will have to fight for it, foot by foot. On the other hand, the capture of Weissenberg by the Prussians is a similar affair more hotly contested may be; but still it has been done with the object of holdthe railroad that runs from Strasbourg and Nancy to Weissenberg, and from there into Speyer in Prussia. The sum of all the fighting done is, that, so far as outsiders can judge, there has been nothing decisive done on either side. The French, so far as we can judge from the meagre telegrams, evidently aim at oc. cupying Rhenish Prussia, and probably Rhenish Bavaria before peace is made. The Prussians, whilst they seem determined to oppose a full force to the advance of the French by way of Saarbrucken and Treves, are apparently mancuvering to advance into France both above and below Strasbourg ; whether for the purpose of creating a division in the French army by drawing off a part from the line between St. Avold and Metz or not, does not clearly appear. It may be with a view to getting possession of the Rhine from the borders of Switzerland down. It is not very probable that France will send any sufficient

SAN JUAN RIVER .- Mr. James Scott and Mr. Brown returned from Leech river Saturday evening bringing important news from that section of the country. About three weeks ago they went on a prospecting expedition to the San Juan river, where they found good prospects of course gold, and in three hours they washed $2 37 with a pan. This ground is attacted on a point which they named Brown's point and staked off their discovery and the staked off their disco Brown's point and staked off their discovery claim. They believe that this ground joins part of an old channel and are confident that they have a good thing. The place is about a day and a half travel from Leech river in a southwesterly direction. We would draw the attention of the Acting Surveyor General to the impassible state of the Leech river trail, and as it is likely to be used a great deal we think that it ought to be put in repair. The small sum of $60 judiciously expended is all that is necessary to make it passible.

PORT OF VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA.

ENTERED. CLEARED. Augs sch Eliza, Middleton, Suantch,

On the 3rd Inst., at Pandora Street Church, by the Very Rev. Dean Cridge, Sarah Eleanor Jenkinson to Thomas Nicholson, both of this city.

The Institute Picnic.

On Saturday the anxiously looked for picnic of the Mechanic's Institute was held at available in the city were engaged, conveying parties to the grounds; at 2 o'clock all the principal places of business in the city were closed, and young and old started out with the intention of having a good day's enjoyment. The music of Haynes' brass band commenced at 2:30 o'clock, and notwithstanding the excessive heat, dancing was commenced. The platform was well shaded from the powerful rays of the sun. There were swings, merry-go-rounds, and all kinds of amusements for the children, who seemed to enjoy themselves highly during the day. In the afternoon His Excellency the Governor and Lady arrived on the ground, and remained several hours, taking a lively interest in the fete. At four o'clock, Mr. James Cooke ascended the tight-rope, which was about 320 feet in length, stretched at an angle of about 22 from the ground to the top of the tallest tree in the Grove. When he had walked about halt the distance the wind blew pretty strong, and he paused, balancing himself on one foot for a short time, and then resumed his walk. Upon arriving at the tree he towed gracefully, and the crowd, which was spell-bound dur-ing the time the feat was being performed, warst into a tremendous applause. Mr Cooke used the balancing pole, and performed his difficult task without the slightest apparent tremor. After the walkest had descended the games commenced with spirit and continued until the vail of night was drawn. After dark the grounds and platform presented a lively scene, and it is to be wondered at where the large number of people came from. The platform and Grove was brilliantly lighted up. The burlesque of Bombastes Furioso, and the minstrel performance, was given at 9 o'clo-k, and, although the acting and singing was good the people seemed dissatisfied with it, on account of the dancing being stopped. The committee deserve great praise for their un-wearying exertions to make the affair a success which it was, and no doubt the pecuniary result will be very satisfactory. The games were as follows :

Hurdle race, 200 yards, 6 hurdles-won by Foot race, 200 yds-A dead heat between Wheeler and Zeigler. The second time this race was run Wheeler won, Ziegler failing and fracturing his knee-cap.

Cariboo Mining Summary.

[From the Sentinel, July 30.] WILLIAM CREEK.

The Gold Hill co. continue prospecting. The San Juan co. cleaned up 23 oz. for the week. The Mountain co. bottomed a piece of deep ground and got good prospects. The Downie co. cleaned up 70 oz. The Flume co. bave suspended operations until winter, when they intend to run a tunnel. The Forward co. have rigged up two hydraulics and are apidly opening the ground. Good prospects have encouraged them to increase heir working force and apparatus, and a profitable result is expected. The McLaren co. have finished cleaning up and took out 56 oz. last week. The Dutch Bill cleaned up 115 oz. for the week. The Cornish co have commenced cleaning up and are working two shits. The work in the Cornish claim, which has been under the direction of Capt. Robertson, has been vigorously pushed forward this season, and if the ground should pay as well as before, good dividends will be obtained. The first "clean-up," on Thursday, gave 56 oz. The Foster-Campbell co. made over expenses for the week. The Cariboo co. took out over 7) oz. The Forest co. washed up 49 oz. and the St. George over 50 oz. The New Aurora co. are following up a streak of gravet which is believed to be 'spill" from a back channel. The Alert co. washed up 13 oz. last week.

WALKER'S GULCH. The Last Trial co. washed up 35 oz. from their tail race and prospecting hole.

STOUT GULCH The Mucho Oro co. got on to pay again last week and took out 27 oz. The Taffrale. co. washed up 371 oz.

GROUSE CREEK. of Sheba co. have got their ground into good working shape and will soon test its quality.

The Union co. have commenced washing and are getting satisfactory pay. A few smaller and have our being." companies are making about wages,

LIGHTNING CREEK.

The Vulcan co. bave commenced a tail race. The Vancouver co. are down 26 feet in their bed-rock shaft, The Victoria co. are running a ditch. The Vanwinkle co. have got their machinery to work and are drifting. The Spruce co. are still putting in a tail-race. The machinery for this company s about completed and will be sent over from William creek. The Lightning co. washed up over 560 oz. for the week. The Gladstone co. have got their machinery nearly completed. The Eleven of England continue sinking a shalt. The Eldorado co. expect to strike the channel in a couple of weeks. A great deal of prospecting has been done by this company. Last fall they started a shaft and, not being sole to bottom in consequence of water, they commenced a tunnel about 60 feet below the road and got in 250 feet.

They then sank a blind shaft 20 feet, could spiritual laws, which in their occasional Arrived from the Mainland on Saturday, bringing Barnard's Express and quite a number of passengers. Among the passengers were Mrs. Barlow, Capt. Cooper, Capt. Irving, Mr. Hooper, T. Moedy, Mr. McCreight, Mr. Davie, Mr. Lewin and Rev. Mr. Holmes.

They then sank a blind shaft 20 feet, could not bottom, and commenced tunnelling about 40 feet lower down the hill and cut through bedrock 200 feet. Here they struck a channel and drifted across it 80 feet. The Brown co. cleaned up 96 oz. for the last two weeks -a far better result than was expected, as part of the ground before. The Eclipse and Russell-Robertson cos. continue sinking shafts. The Victoria co. washed up 25 oz. for the week, and the Kelley co. 60 oz. The Calaveras co. are running a drain.

Omineca.

By the arrival of the Otter on Saturday, the mainland, we learn the following from a gentleman from Omineca, regarding that section of the Colony :

VITAL CREEK. The California co. had ground-sluiced s large piece of ground and had commenced to clean up. Their claim is in the lower part of the creek. Hazard had commenced cleaning up? The Hamilton cor were doing well and had a piece of ground from which expected to take from 1 to 2 oz. per day to the hand. The Brown and Taylor co. were making a little over an ounce per day to the The Vital co. had been making 2 oz. per day to the hand shovelling into sluices heir ground was only three and four feet deep. The Discovery co. had struck the edge of the deep channel and found the gold going down with the rock. They were preparing to sink a shaft to prospect the deep ground. The Chapman claim, which paid well last year, was not giving satisfactory returns. The Davis claim was paying something. A great part of the creek, from the Discovery claim upwards, had been abandoned, except by one company, who were ground-stuicing. Mr. Elmore was trying to organize a company to work the Adair ground, and had made a iberal offer of provisions for that purpose.

Spiritualism: and the Very Rev. Dean Cridge's Pamphlet thereon.

"The inquiry of truth, which is the lovemaking, or wooing of it, and the knowledge of truth, which is the presence of it, and the belief of truth, which is the enjoyment of it, is the sovereign good of human nature."-

"Truth is truth : because it corresponds to everything, satisfies everything; because, both in general and in detail, it is better adapted a thousand involuntary advocates; because everything demands it, everything cries after it ; because falsehood, which at first appeared to benefit all, has ended by injuring all. Combinations of which it is impossible to give an account, and of which God only has the secret, secure that victory. It is thus that truths the most combatted, and at first sustained by organs the most despised, and by

EDITOR DAILY STANDARD :- I'be pamphlet of the Very Reverend Dean Cridge, of the Episcopalian church of this city, on Spiritualism, or Modern Necromancy, has now been for some time before the public. We have also recently had here, a quondam Methodist Clergyman, lecturing on Spiritualism and Woman's Rights-so that, in one direction or another, the mind of Victoria has probably been deeply stirred on the many recondit questions involved in the matters as well in the pamphlet as in the lectures. The Dean characterizes Spiritualism as "s very ancient wickedness" notwithstanding that the Bible is full of it, and that in forms often reproduced in these latter days, but His Reverence has failed properly to distinguish between its good and bad side. This is fully done in the "History of the supernatural in all ages and nations and in all Churches Christian and Pagan demonstrat-ing a Universal Faith," by William Howitt, a voluminous, earnest and able author, of whom Epes Sargent thus writes : " Howitt, of whom we may say as Colridge said of Baxter (another Spiritualist) 'I could almost as soon doubt the gospel verity, as his veracity.' Howitt, in his preface to the work named, explains that 'The author of this work in tends by the supernatural the operation of those higher and more recordite laws of God with which, being yet but most imperfectly acquainted, we either donominate their effects miraculous, or, shutting our eyes firmly; deny

"Sorcery is the evil side of the great reality of Spirit-ualism," which Mr. Cridge endeavors to prove all Sorcery or Blackartism, Id : "Christ broke the law of Moses regarding 'seeking the spirits of the dead,' 'so far as good spirits are concerned' by himself seeking the spirit of Moses, the very promulgator of that law, and by leading his disciples to do the same." This conflicts directly with the Rev. Dean's remarks, on the event referred to-see text and note page 9 and elsewhere in

It has its many modes and its many phases, one or according to the requirements of different periods and conditions of the human minds and of society. It has its adaptation to the saint, the savage, and the sage, to civiliza-tion and uncivilization. At one time it is nanitested by celestial messengers appearing in the likeness of men amongst men, announ cing great events, doing wondrous deeds; at another, speaking through prophets; at another, exhibiting physical manifestations through them, causing an axe to float on water, a fleece to be preternaturally wet or dry; a cruse of oil or a barrel of flour to be full in spite of draining; rain to fall or not to tall, men to see or become suddenly blind. At others, it comes in the still, small but audible voice of God, to his servants; at others, by breaking the chains of prisoners, and bearing men through the air as Philip was borne At all times by interior inspiration.
